

Matrons Will Reorganize Club For Knitting for the Soldiers

FOLLOWING in line with Americanism, up to its eyes in patriotic work, the fancy work club of 20 members—all prominent matrons—who met last year in sociability and needlework, will reorganize for the season on Friday, October 5, as a knitting club, when Mrs. Dan T. White entertains for her mother, Mrs. James Brady. Garments will be made for the soldiers and sailors, henceforth. Mrs. S. M. Waldrop was president last year, and is "leading the class" to start their social afternoon again.

The personnel of members numbers Mrs. James Brady, Mrs. G. M. Crombie, Mrs. C. O. Coffin, Mrs. C. C. Evans, Mrs. E. W. Fickrell, Mrs. Mary Deason, Mrs. Elizabeth Fienlaken, Mrs. Mattie Jones, Mrs. Kittie Mar, Mrs. W. D. Mayfield, Mrs. Adeline T. Owen, Mrs. E. V. Fickrell, Mrs. E. A. Shelton, Mrs. C. T. Hays, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. M. C. McCormick, Mrs. Meta Winder, Mrs. L. N. Washburn and Mrs. S. M. Waldrop.

Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. S. McMath, 2120 Nations avenue, a large number of women met to form the Grandview auxiliary of the Red Cross and elect officers. Mrs. McMath was the unanimous choice for chairman. Mrs. W. S. McMath, secretary; Mrs. U. W. Detwiler, secretary in knitting; and Mrs. J. P. Williams, chairman of yarn. The auxiliary will meet twice a week—on Thursday mornings and Friday afternoons—Mrs. McMath having offered the use of her home for the gatherings. Mrs. Gertrude Yale will instruct on Friday and Mrs. E. J. Eitner on the Thursday meetings. A thorough canvass of Grandview district will bring out many volunteers who are anxious to "do their much" in a patriotic way. Should each section of El Paso follow suit and organize systematically, the work would progress much faster. Charter members of the Grandview auxiliary are Mrs. McMath, Mrs. W. C. McCormick, Mrs. A. H. Key, Mrs. D. W. Detwiler, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. L. L. Robinson, Mrs. J. J. Finney, Mrs. C. M. Gilman, Mrs. Henry T. Bowie and Mrs. J. H. Gooch.

On account of the Festival of the Allies occupying the entire first week of October, the initial meeting of the Women's club will occur October 10, instead of the 5th, as formerly announced. This can be easily done, as the month has five Wednesdays.

The program for the first meeting is as yet incomplete. There will be special music and a general assembly. On October 17, the music department will have charge, followed the 24th, by the current events and literature. An art program is scheduled for October 26. The board of directors have also postponed their business session to Tuesday, October 3, at the clubhouse. The club members are asked to bring their "white elephants" for the Woman's club booth—Siam. These will be auctioned off right merrily during the 24th. The Siamese twins are already here—two bosom pals born on the same day. And they are going to help make things hum.

Judge Buckler Going East for Daughter's Wedding Very Shortly

IN VITATIONS have just been received by Judge and Mrs. Julius Augustus Buckler, of the approaching marriage of their beautiful young daughter, Henrietta McFrayer Buckler, to John Frederick Seiberling, Lieutenant in the U. S. N. G., which will be an important happening of Thursday, October 11, at "Stan-Hwyer Hall," the country place of the groom, near the parents in Akron, Ohio, at a 1 o'clock.

There has been no more important happening in years than the wedding of this beautiful young society girl of El Paso, to the wealthy easterner. Universal regret is expressed that the bridegroom, a letter that lately arrived from Imman C. Sharp, "somewhere in France," to his sister, Miss Mary Sharp of El Paso, telling with what delight the soldiers received their comfort bags. All sort of materials were made into the bags, but Mr. Sharp says the khaki is by far the most satisfactory in standing the wear and tear of army life. "These bags are proving indispensable," says the letter. Cards, pipe, shoe polish, soap and talcum powder are some of the articles that were sent along, with the little housewife for sewing.

The arena club met with Mr. George Morgan at the Masonic temple, Friday afternoon. Patriotic colors were used profusely, also being carried out in the refreshments. A large number of the members were present and were enthusiastic to take up the work for the coming year. Visitors present were Mrs. M. J. Murphy, of Jacksonville, Tex.; Miss Ruth Dwyer, of San Antonio, and Miss Lloyd, of El Paso. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. W. N. Pence and Mrs. Geo. F. Morgan.

Martha Washington Circle—Spirits of 75, were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Youngberg. The members, who are doing all the mending for Fort Bliss, in addition to their Red Cross sewing, find plenty to do in their making of covers for hot water bottles and ice bags, crag dollies, seryettes, and other needed articles. On account of the Festival of the Allies, there will be no meeting next Friday. Mrs. Youngberg will have the members a fortnight hence.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church is to convene Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the church parlors. The program is in charge of the officers: Mrs. W. B. Smith, president; Mrs. O. J. Allen, vice president; Mrs. J. G. McGrady,
